The Buffalo Shoe House is popular with every poor man or woman in the city and surrounding towns, owing to frequent special sales, at which times every one obtains special bargains.

The opening day, Thursday, was a "rusher." All day Friday and ate in the evening an extra force of clerks worked to straighten stock and prepare for the Saturday trade, which latter tasked to its full extent our mammoth salesroom and large force of salesmen.

Monday, March 30th, the first day of this week, will be opened the most gigantic sacrifice in Boot and Shoe bargains ever conceived possi. ble. We mean STRAIGHT BUSINESS, and we talk plain English when we tell you we are fearfully overstocked with goods and no place to put them. We MUST, must close them out---obliged to do it. We want cash. We prefer a two dollar bill to a pair of four dollar Shoes. If you don't believe it, try us to-morrow. Monday will be a great day at the Slaughter Shoe Sale. NO SUMMER VACATION.

President Cleveland Not Given to Summer

Trips.

Special to the Sentinel. Washington, March 28 .- An inquiry at the White House as to where Mr. Cleveland would likely go during the hot months of summer, was met by the answer "to work." The President has not been in the habit, his friends say, or going away on summer trips, and seldom takes recreation of any considerable length of time. He is in the habit of taking walks and drives of frequent and at regular intervals. He rises, dines, works and has his amusement at certain hours of the day. He is very steady in his habits, and, being a man of robust build and natural good health, he has never found it necessary to take the kind of recreation other Presidents have.

One of Mr. Cleveland's friends from Albany says that the President cares nothing for fishing or gunning, and he will not be off on any excursions of that character. He has a way of discharging his mind of business cares when his day's work is over, and his rest is perfect. He sleeps well. His nerves are firm, regular and steady. He has no air-castles, no suspense, nothing like remorse, and he can in an hour recover from the fetigue of a day. It is a blessing to have this disposition surely. It is the offspring of health, a fine physique, clastic constitution, and above ail, absolute will power. The men who call frequently at the White the uniform good nature of the President. He keeps an even temperament, and has nothing like the dyspepsia. His digestion is good, and he makes those about him feel well

Regarding that Spurious Report. WASHINGTON, March 28 .- The statement of ex-Senator Hill, published to-day in a dispatch from Denver, denying the responsibility for the spurious report issued from the Government Printing Office as a report of the Senate Committee on Postoffice sand Post Roads, and asserting that the only report that he (Hill) ever ordered printed was that of the committee investigation, printed in the summer of 1884, was shown this afternoon to the late clerk of the committee, who was also the Private Secretary of its Chairman. Regarding the material contained in the report the clerk said he had himself copied the questions propounded to the President of he Western Union Company, but had received the newspaper clippings, of which faur fifths of the spurious reports consisted, from Senator Hill himself. Mr. Hill denies that he ordered any copy to be printed. The ex-Clerk admits baving received, the day before yesterday, 150 of the 200 extra copies, ordered by him for the use of the committee, and says be took them to the folding room to be folded. "To be folded and directed to whom?" was asked. "To be folded in blank" The gentleman declined to state to whom the copies of the spurious document were to be sent, and declined to answer any further questions. The members of the Senate Committee, whom somebody, apparently acting through Senator Hill, intended to make responsible in part for this spurious publication, are exceedingly indignant. They invited investigation entirely of their own motion, and have given orders at the document room that no more copies shall be given out

The Excitement Intense in Toronto Over the Order to Send More Troops

TORONTO, March 28.-The excitement here continues unabated. From an early hour this morning the approaches to the drill she's have been crowded with people waiting in expectation of seeing the departure of the troops. The Royal Grenadiers mustered at 8 o'clock, and, notwithstanding the early hour and the fact that the sergeants could not find time last night to notify all the members of their companies, they turned out 300 strong. After they were dismissed, the Queen's Own mustered and showed a creditable turnout of 54%. There is the wildest excitement amongst them, and many who have left the regiment. when they heard Colonel Otter was to take command begged to be enrolled. Both regiments are now in the drill-shed, anxiously waiting orders when to start. The selection of 250 men from each regiment won't be made till definite orders have arrived. The Mayor has intimated that the city will look after the wives and families of any married men who go to the irontier.

Daring Escape of a Prisoner.

Thoy, March 28 .-- A policeman had his attention stiracted by a blanket rope daugling from a thirdstory window of the jail this morning about 4 o'clock. An investigation showed that John Flynn, aged twenty-two years, awaiting trial for robbery, had escaped. He had cut through the bars of his cell, schloroformed his cell-mate, cut his blanket into strips, knotted it together and slid down. In order to gain admission from his cell to the corridor Flynn had blown the lock to pieces with powder. He then sawed through several iron bars, cutting away an iron screen in order to reach them. The blanket rope with the aid of which he reached the ground, was twenty-four feet long. Flynn has been in jail since January 31. He was jointly indicted with John Simmons, who is serving out a twelve year term for robbery.

The Feeling Against Barrios in Mexico. St. Leuis, March 28 .- A dispatch from the City of Mexico says over twenty Mexican military officers, not in active service, have gone to Central America to join the forces of San Salvador and Nicaregua against Guatemals, and that the war feeling is rapidly growing stronger. A large public meeting was held on Thursday night, at which every speaker advocated determined and aggressive action toward Guatemaia. An intense feeling of batred toward Barrios was manifested, and the meeting was frequently interrupted with cries of "Pown with Barrios!" "Death to Barrios!" It is reported that the government is not adverse to the public agitation against Barrios.

Neither man would give in. The fight was stopped by the speciators on fear of fatal results.

WHEATON'S MURDER TRIAL.

All the Testimony In-The Prisoners Flippant-Grief of Mrs. Fletcher and Her Daughter.

murder trial is nearing the end, and as time lapses the interest grows more intense. The court-room yesterday morning was crowded, and more women were present. Merritt Fletcher was the last witness examined. Like his father, he gave his testimony slowly, deliberately and with a slippancy that utterly killed any sentiment that had been previously shown in their favor.
State Attorney L. C. Cooper, of Du Page County. opened the arguments for the presecution. His peech was a short review of the case. He was followed by C. W. Dwight, for the defense, who spoke principally in rebuttal of Mr. Cooper's remarks. State Attorney Russell, of Kane County, followed with an able argument consuming an hour and forty minutes. When the speaker mentioned the chances the prisoners are running of being hanged Mrs. Fletcher burst into a violent fit of weeping, which continued through the re-mainder of the day. Her daughter remained more calm, crying at times. Both father and son, however, remained as stolid and indifferent as adament. Only once did the former evince signs o nervousness. A portion of the time he held his wife's hand, which was the only consolation be attempted. The son. Merritt, was especially indifferent, and seemed totally oblivious of the fact that his life was at stake. A sneer frequently distorted his countenance, however, which suggested some mental feeling. Mr. Shissler made the closing argument of the day. He spoke deliberately and eloquently, but in a way that snowed he thought there was little hope for the prisoners. Judge E. 8. So while the crowd moved out into the street and quickly swelled to hundrends, Palmer, for whom they were waiting, was quietly taken to the jail by a back way. When it was discovered what had been done the crowd became noisy, and dared the officers to bring him out into the street. LONDON, March 28 .- There is a marked full in the war scare. In fact, among the very soberminded there is no war scare at all. Some of the most flery jingos even are beginning to ask themselves what grounds they have had for causing all the alarm of the past week. The first announcement of the Queen's summons calling out the army reserves and militia almost created a panic. It aroused the national pugnacity thoroughly. It made every lighting Englishman ready to light right away. The pugnacity is still up but there is a growing belief that it is up for nothing. The blood thirst is being stacked with the coldest kind of water. After putting everybody in a fever-heat of excitement by springing without notice a call for the reserves, the ministry are now apparently attempting to minumize end impart to Her Majasty's message by delaying to state what number of militia and reserves would be accepted and put under arms. Every effort was made to draw the Government out on this point, but so far without success. But the ministry have allowed reports to be circulated to the effect that no greater number 25,000 men are now wanted. The reports have emanated from such good authority, and have been so parsistently circulated and are now generally believed, and so far, to use an American expression, "the thing has petered out." Twenty-five thousand men, just about enough to fill the vacancies in the muster rolls caused by the recent drafts for Egyptain and editerranean stations. 'remier's evasion must be considered a clover iece of work of its kind. Lists of all the men available for service in the army reserves and militis bave been called for. Dockyard departments have been officially notified to hold themselves in readiness for the supply of extra stores for military and service. The Army and Navy Gazette blames minor news agendes for fomenting war rumors. It charges them with baving circulated yarns about alleged hurrica calling off ships, in which the stories are very often of ships actually on duty at foreign stations have figured as being ordered for outfit.

The military garrisons of Ireland will be maintained in full strength, and may be increased from the reserves. Agents of Irish organizations have approached the Russian Embassy in Paris with offers of assistance in case a war occurs between Russia and England. These agents propose to foment an uprising in Ireland while England is engaged in Afghanistan, and to fit out privateers in America to prey upon British commerce. All they ask is that Russia shall furnish the Irish allies with the means to carry out their part of the bargain, and they offer to work as cheaply as possible The overtures to Turkey for an alliance Russia are still sideration. Diplomatic advices from Athens and Constantinople concur in corroborating the truth of the report that secret negotiations have been for some time in progress with Austria Greece and Russia for a new territorial arrange ment with Turkey. Under this, Bussia is to obtain the annexation of East Roumelia to Bulgaria, with an extension of the principality east to Boumelia and the Algean Sea: Greece to get that part of Macedonia, with the frontier line along the Secos and Haleacton Rivers to the mouth of the latter, in the Guif of Salonica; Austria to optain a new frontier from the Plains of Kossova to the western side of the mouth of Orvellos, along the River Strymon to the Fgean Sea: the center of Austrian territory to be a part of Salonica.

Russia also asks to be accorded the right to ocpy ports on the Black Sea at the entrance to he Bosphorous. The knowledge of the fact of these negotiations pending has increased the hances in favor of a consummation of the Anglo-Turkish alliance. The "peace-at any-price" members of the Comons are circulating a petition to Gladstone urg-

The comp is connected with Suakim by trainway. Nothing has yet been done in the way of constructing the prejected Berber Railway. The transport service is very defective. For want of a better transport service, the whole army is suffering, men, mules and camels being compelled to carry otherwise unnecessary burdens in the torid heat Typhold fever and dysentery are quite prevalent among the troops, although in official dispatches to London the health of the soldiers is described as excellent. The Arabs friendly to El Mahdi, instead of abandoning the Prophet's cause, seem to become daily more hostile to the British in the Soudan, while the men find it worth their lives to stray from any of the British camps beyond the lines of

At Dibbeh and Tamai, lately, no man attached to the British cause has succeeded in going beyoud the outposts without being grossly insulted or attacked. Several men who recently strayed from the camps at both places have not returned, and have undoubtedly been killed.
